We will never share any personally identifiable information from website users unless permission for the dissemination of such information is voluntarily given by a user.

Anonymous Information

Anonymous click stream information is collected for every visitor to this site. This includes pages viewed, date and time and browser type. IP numbers are not stored, but are temporarily used to determine domain type and in some cases geographic region. There is no association between this information and a visitor's identity.

This information is used to contact the user about the services on our site for which they have expressed interest. It is optional for the user to provide demographic information or unique identifiers (such as address), but is encouraged so we can provide a more personalized experience on our site.

Cookies

A cookie is a piece of data stored on the user's hard drive containing information about the user. Usage of a cookie is in no way linked to any personally identifiable information while on our site. The cookies extract no personal information nor provide us with a method to identify or contact you. Once the user closes his/her browser, the cookie simply terminates. For instance, by setting a cookie on our site, the user would not have to log in a password more than once, thereby saving time while on our site. If a user rejects the cookie, they may still use our site. The only drawback to this is that the user will be limited in some areas of our site. For example, the user will not be able to participate in any of our Sweepstakes, or receive our Newsletter, that take place from time to time. Cookies can also enable us to track and target the interests of our users to enhance the experience on our site.

We use IP addresses to analyze trends, administer the site, track user movement, and gather broad demographic information for aggregate use. IP addresses are not linked to any personally identifiable information.

Sharing

We will share aggregated demographic information with our partners and advertisers. This is not linked to any personal information that can identify any individual person.

We may partner with other parties to provide specific services. What the user signs up for these services, we will share contact information that is necessary for the third party to provide these services. These partners are not allowed to use personally identifiable information except for the purpose of providing these services. Green Point Marine Construction INC. does not sell, trade, or rent your personal information to others. We may choose to do so in the future with trustworthy third parties, but you can tell us not to by sending an e-mail message to us. (If you use more than one e-mail address to shop with us, send this message from each e-mail account you use.) Green Point Marine Construction INC. may provide aggregate statistics about our customers, sales, traffic patterns, and related site information to reputable third-party vendors, but these statistics will include no personally identifying information. We may release account information when we believe, in good faith, that such release is reasonably necessary to (i) comply with the law, (ii) enforce or apply the terms of any of our user agreements or (iii) protect the rights, property or safety of Green Point Marine Construction INC., our users, or others.
